LOCAL MATTERS OF GENERAL INTEREST

W. H. Griffith, chairman of the retail dealers' war savings stamps organization, has called for reports from all retailers who have sold stamps. These reports should cover the month of August.

Eight young women are engaged in collecting unpaid pledges to the Red Triangle last November.

The Hotel and Restaurant Men's Association met at the Robidoux Thursday night and looked into the sugar situation.

The St. Joseph firemen laid their case for an increase in pay before the Central Labor Council last night.

It will cost James Keeling, a laborer, thirty days in jail for beating his wife Wednesday.

Raymond Johnson, a qualified aviator, is spending a ten day furlough with the family of J. E. Thompson here.

It cost Ernest Senn, a salesman, $10 in police court Thursday for disturbing the peace of Thomas Anderson, a street car conductor.

Frances M. Jones has filed suit for divorce from William Jones, alleging that he abused her.

The funeral of Hans Nelson, who died Wednesday, was conducted Thursday. Interment was in Mount Mora.

The National Security League has notified the secretary of the St. Joseph branch to look out for and defeat candidates for office who are not thoroughly loyal. None were found here.

III. The dead man was identified as a resident of Andrew county, his home being at Savannah. He had been committed to the Hospital for the Insane at Fulton, Mo., some time ago, but escaped from that institution a month ago.

The Labor Day celebration held here Monday by the union trade men was a great success. The parade was good and the exercises at the lake were fine.

St. Joseph had a 2.52 inch precipitation Sunday, and Monday the Missouri river was reported higher at many points. It is said that this rain drained the crop of grasshoppers in the country near here.

Sam Casper feels real happy for his pen at White Plymouth Rocks chickens captured all the first and second prizes last week at the Easton fair.

The police arrested a bunch of gypsies Sunday for peace disturbance near Lake Contrary.

Nate P. Bensley, a well known young laundryman, will soon be in France in charge of a U. S. laundry. He left Wednesday for Kansas City for assignment at Camp Mills, New York.

FIFTY-FIFTY.
A simple-minded lumberjack from Minnesota at the front with our troops wrote a letter asking for $50, and addressed it to "The Good Lord, care of Y. M. C. A., France." His letter was so simple, direct, and full of faith that the boys around the Y. M. C. A. camp decided to chip in and send him $25. He acknowledged the money with a heart full of thanks, but added this postscript:

P. S.—Good Lord: In case you send me any more money, don't let it come through the Y. M. C. A., as the last time they held out $25 on me.

HE WAS USED TO THRILLS.
It was during a terrifying bombardment of a front line trench. The cannons were booming, the machine guns crackling, bombs bursting, the rifles racking, and cries of the wounded filling the smoke saturated air. A number of Tommies were awaiting orders. Suddenly one turned to his neighbor, dug him in the ribs, and mildly asked, "For God's sake, Bob, scare me—I got the hiccoughs."

A PROTECTIVE POLICY.
A colored recruit said he intended to take out the full limit of government insurance, $10,000. On being told by a fellow soldier that he would be foolish to pay on so much when he was likely to be shot in the trenches, he replied: "Huh! I reckon I know what I'm doing. You all don't s'pose Uncle Sam is going to put a $10,000 man in the first line trenches, do you?"

The Gordon's clan will gather at Myers Grove next Sunday—and then—

UNIT TO MARCH

United States Senator Howard Sutherland of West Virginia tells a story about a mountain youth who visited a recruiting office in the senator's state for the purpose of enlisting in the regular army. The examining physician found the young man sound as a dollar, but that he had flat feet.

"I'm sorry," said the physician, "but I'll have to turn you down. You've got flat feet."

The mountaineer looked sorrowful. "No way for me to get in it, then?" he inquired.

"I guess not. With those flat feet of yours you wouldn't be able to march even five miles."

The youth from the mountains studied a moment. Finally he said: "I'll tell you why I hate this so darned bad. You see, I walked nigh on to one hundred and fifteen miles over the mountains to get here, and gosh, how I hate to walk back!"

A PERSON OF DISCERNMENT.

A Quaker had got himself into trouble with the authorities, and a constable called to escort him to the lockup.

"Is your husband in?" he inquired of the good wife who came to the door.

"My husband will see thee," she replied. "Come in."

The officer entered, was bidden to make himself at home, and was hospitably entertained for half an hour, but no husband appeared. At last he grew impatient.

"Look here," said he, "I thought you said your husband would see me."

"He has seen thee," was the calm reply, "but he did not like thy look, and he's gone another way."

GOT ONE IN YOUR HOME?

Captain Anderson Dana, who has just got married at Plattsburg, is a grandson of the journalist, Charles A. Dana, and in an interview he said:

"My grandfather believed in marriage. He thought it steadied a man. I remember a story he used to tell. 'It's a story about a chap who asked a man:

"Have you ever heard anything about a machine for telling when a man is lying?"

"Have you ever seen one?" said the chap.

"Seen one?" said the man, "By gosh, I married one!"

THE RESPONSIBLE ONE.

"This man says you owe him money, Sam," said the judge.

Now! Teddy is "In Bad."

An exchange says that ex-Governor Hadley has come into public notice by cutting fifty cords of wood in Colorado. We are not in the habit of throwing any hosiery at Republican politicians, but we can say that it is exceedingly fortunate for the democracy of this state that the aforesaid Herbert's physical disabilities make this state an unhealthy climate for him. But for this he might be able to do again what no other Republican had been able to do for forty years—Moberly Democrat.

Gov. Dockery in Charge.

The finances of the telegraph and telephone companies recently taken over by the government for the period of the war are to be handled by Gov. Dockery under the order of the Postmaster General. This action will necessarily make the governor a very busy man for he now controls the finances of the postal service, the postal savings bank system with deposits of more than $100,000,000 and the sale of War Savings Stamps by the postoffice department. Already nearly $500,000,000 have been deposited in the national treasury from War Savings Stamps sales, and these sales continue to grow in volume.—Gallatin Democrat.

Fighting Near What?

The police arrested two negro women yesterday on the charge of disturbing the peace. They were fighting near the "Lonesome Bone" restaurant when arrested. They were taken to the city jail and will be held for trial until Monday morning.—Moberly Democrat.
